THE SHANESVILLE HOR. ROR.

Details of the Shocking Dis-

New Comerstown, Ohio, 2 .- The following facts are learned here regarding the calamity at Shanesville, twenty miles north of here on Saturday night. It resulted in the loss of several lives, and serious lojury to nearly 100 victims. The floor gave way with a crash, precipitat-ing about 300 people to the first floor. The red-hot stove was upset with the crowd, and the oil from broken chan-deliers saturated the clothing of the unfortunate victims, and the whole mass of humsnity was soon enveloped in flames. The wildest excitement and confusion prevailed, and the scene which followed beggars description. The cries and screams of the suffering victims, mingled with the groans and screams of the dying, made night hideous, which with the made night hideous, which with the frantic efforts of the victims to escape, as they rushed around with their bodies burned and blackened, presented a ghastly spectacle. As the floor fell in the shape of a V, there was no means of escape until assistance from the outside arrived. I uring all this time the fire was doing its frightful work, and six perished in the flames, including Mrs. Dr. Hoder and her little five year old son, who was burned to a crisp in his mother's arms. Four were crushed to death by falling timbers, and about sixty others were seriously injured, some, perhaps, fatally, as many had their arms and legs broken and their ribs crushed in, while others were horribly burned. By the heroic efforts of citizens the side of the building was broken in and water dashed on the poor, struggling, seething mass of human beings, and many lives were thus saved. The total number of killed and wounded will probably reach 100. Physicians of Shanesville, Rogersville and Canal Dover, are giving all the aid possible to the suffering victims, who are now doing well, though some more will perhaps die of their inju-ries. The building was a rickety frame structure, and has long been considered unsafe.

HORRIBLE.

Cincinnati, 3.—Commercial's Ashland, Ky.: The mon arrested for Gibbon's murder are Wm. Neal, Ellis Craft, and Geo. Ellis, all white. Geo. Ellis confessed to the constable, saying Craft and Neal awakened him on the night of the murder and urged him to go with them to Gibbons'. He went reluctantly. They entered by a window and Neal and Craft outraged the two girls, Emma Thomas recognized Neal and said she would tell her mother. Robert, the boy, then was about to give the alarm when Craft struck him on the head with an axe, killing him instantly. Craft then told Annie that her time to die had come, and amid the piteous cries of the child for mercy, he struck her on the head and killed her instantly. Neal then killed Emma Thomas in the same way. Craft and Neal at first denied the Ellis story, but Neal confessed this afternoon and Ellis and Neal waived examination. Ellis and Neal are married, Craft is single. They all were present at the funeral. One drove the hearse at the funeral and another was a pall bearer. Crowds have been gather-ing all day at Catlettsburg and

Neal were guilty, but subsequently reasserted the first statement, saying that he was compelled to revictims were exhumed to-day and the wounds examined. They were found to correspond exactly with the statement of Ellis as to the position of the parties when the murderous blows were struck. Ellis has made all preparation for death and expected it. Detective Lasin thinks Ellis is the chief actor in the tragedy, and that his confession is due to form that his confession is due to fears that the others would give

Washington, 3.—Congressman Barr, of Pennsylvania, yesterday, informed a sub-committee of the Harrisburg Ministerial Association, who called on him in relation to Utah affairs, that in his judgment no measure could be adopted too radical for the suppression of polygamy in this country. The Ministerial Association of Harrisburg has drawn up a petition in the nature of an address in which the people of Pennsylvania are requested to join the clergy in demanding the suppression of polygamy by con-gressional interference. It is claimed that this is the first organized committee of any clerical body to secure the aid of the government to rid the country of polygamy.
